About Venetian Festival

Founded in 1979 by local boaters as a way to celebrate St. Joseph's natural blessings of the lake and river, the Venetian Festival has grown to become the largest community event in Southwest Michigan. Nearly 150,000 people from across the Midwest and beyond make the Venetian Festival an annual travel destination, leaving behind an annual economic impact on the area of nearly 1.6 million.

The Venetian Festival offers something for the whole family — from headline entertainment on two stages, a midway and children's activities, to fabulous fireworks and the Taste for Southwest Michigan. Help us celebrate our 33rd year and see why the third weekend in July is called Venetian Time!
